

Sanford Medical Center Fargo Pharmacy Residents

Nicole Stenzel, PharmD

Program: PGY2 Critical Care

Hometown: St. Peter, Minnesota

College of pharmacy: South Dakota State University, Class of 2018

Professional interests: Surgery/Trauma

Why I chose Sanford Fargo for residency training: I love working at a level 1 trauma center and the one-on-one experiences I am provided with talented pharmacy preceptors! The provider-pharmacist relationships in the ICU at Sanford Fargo are invaluable.

Hobbies: Reading, hanging out with friends

Favorite things to do in Fargo: Trivia night and brewery tours

Email: Nicole.Stenzel@sanfordhealth.org

Siri Burck, PharmD

Program: PGY1 Traditional

Hometown: Fargo, ND

College of pharmacy: North Dakota State University, Class of 2019

Professional Interests: Internal medicine, infectious disease, psychiatry

Why I chose Sanford Fargo for residency training: As a student on rotation I really enjoyed the team aspect of being in a large teaching hospital and the pharmacists are really involved in patient-centered care. I also enjoyed that Sanford offers a well-rounded experience and provides a great environment for the residents to develop as a clinical pharmacist, preceptor, and researcher.

Hobbies: playing board games, reading, hanging out with family and friends

Favorite things to do in Fargo: Exploring new restaurants -- Fargo is continually growing!

Email: Siri.Burck@sanfordhealth.org

Maxx Enzmann, PharmD

Program: PGY1 Traditional

Hometown: Carmel, Indiana

College of pharmacy: Drake University, Class of 2019

Professional interests: Infectious Diseases, Neurology, Academia

Why I chose Sanford Fargo for residency training: I chose Sanford Fargo due to the variety of rotations in my areas of interest, the flexibility towards residents' goals and career interests, as well as the great relationships all the residents and preceptors have with each other.

Hobbies: Reading Stephen King novels, playing soccer, and spending time at my cabin on Rainy Lake

Favorite things to do in Fargo: Explore new restaurants and breweries, watch football, and attend local festivals

Email: Maxx.Enzmann@sanfordhealth.org

Mike Erickson, PharmD

Program: PGY1 Traditional

Hometown: Langford, SD

College of pharmacy: South Dakota State University, Class of 2019

Professional Interests: Infectious disease, cardiology, neurology, critical care

Why I chose Sanford Fargo for residency training: I knew Sanford's residency program would help strengthen my clinical knowledge base and improve upon my interdisciplinary team skills through the variety of experiences and rotations they offer. They give you the keys to customize your residency year and tailor it towards your interest areas to boost your practice and confidence. I also felt that Sanford Fargo was a great fit for me personally and everyone on the pharmacy team has been very welcoming from the get-go!

Hobbies: Golf, basketball, snowboarding

Favorite things to do in Fargo: Visit the Fargo breweries, golf at one of the many courses in Fargo

Email: Michael.Erickson@sanfordhealth.org

Sammie Nguyen, PharmD

Program: PGY1 Nontraditional

Hometown: Moorhead, MN

College of pharmacy: North Dakota State University, Class of 2012

Professional Interests: Cardiology, Specialty Pharmacy

Why I chose Sanford Fargo for residency training: Sanford Fargo offers an option for current staff pharmacists to pursue a non-traditional PGY1 residency. The positive working environment we currently have along with supportive preceptors available for guidance really helped solidify my desire to expand my clinical knowledge and become a pharmacy resident with Sanford Fargo.

Hobbies: Hang out with family, ballroom dancing, watch movies, travel with loved ones

Favorite things to do in Fargo: Barbecue or ride bikes at the park in the summer; take pictures with the beautiful leaves in the fall; enjoy the beautiful Christmas lights with snow in the backdrop during the holiday season.

Email: Sammie.Nguyen@sanfordhealth.org

Anna Fox, PharmD

Program: PGY1 in an Ambulatory Care Setting

Hometown: Winchester, Virginia

College of pharmacy: Medical College of Virginia/Virginia Commonwealth University, Class of 2019

Professional Interests: Diabetes, geriatrics, anticoagulation, psychiatry

Why I chose Sanford Fargo for residency training: I really love to travel and coming to Fargo provided me with the opportunity to live in a new and entirely different place. Sanford is a large hospital system that has the resources and opportunities that I wanted in a residency program. The ambulatory care residency program is new which I felt provided me an exciting opportunity to be the first resident and help to shape the program for future residents.

Hobbies: being outside, travel, cooking, arts & crafts

Favorite things to do in Fargo: trying new restaurants

Email: Anna.Fox@sanfordhealth.org